Christmas
 on Canal

Sunday, December 4th

It's Christmas time again! Houses on the street are being lit up with beaming lights that make our eyes wide with wonder. We're surrounded by radiant colors of red and green everywhere we go. Songs of Christmas fill our ears as we walk through the department store searching for the perfect gift for friends and family. We find ourselves singing along with the music playing in the mall and when we make eye contact with a stranger who notices us singing we both just smile and continue on our way. It's perfectly acceptable.

It's Christmas time.

The sound of children laughing and playing in the neighborhood floods our ears and brings smiles to our faces. Memories of our own childhood experiences of Christmases past stir up in our hearts such emotion. Chocolate chip cookies are in the oven and we wait for them to finish with our friends and family as we sip on hot chocolate.

It's Christmas time.

These are all wonderful things about Christmas that we cherish, but as followers of Jesus Christ, this time of year means so much more to us than Christmas trees and chocolate chip cookies. Christmas is when we celebrate the birth of our Savior. The Hope of the world. The only One able to save us from our sins. Isaiah prophesied years ago:

"For a child will be born to us, a son will be given to us;
And the government will rest on His shoulders;
And His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Eternal Father, Prince of Peace."

It's Christmas time.

May we celebrate the reason for this season. JESUS, Messiah! The greatest gift of all!

Christmas trees are springing up in our homes and are beginning to be filled with numerous ornaments and sparkling lights.

Tim Johnson, Associate Pastor of Worship and Music

ADVENT TREE

Today, we receive the precious gift of LOVE. Listen to the words of the carol, Love Came Down at Christmas read by Jonathan Patterson. Lorenzo Galmon and Elizabeth Woodward join him in this celebration.
