At the end of our last Capital Campaign, I continued to contribute to the building fund knowing there would be needs for our building in our future. I continued this offering for a number of years since it had become a part of our household budget. That future need is now part of our present reality: to bring our youth back to the church building and create a new entrance to our facilities. These renovations and additions are no longer a "nice-to-have," but a "must" for our ministry.

When God's people make a commitment as a family, we can accomplish great things. I am excited about this new challenge that we will undertake together, each giving as their budget allows and as God leads. With the example of the widow's mite, God will take what we give and multiply it for this challenge we face.

May God bless all of us as we continue to serve Him in this new commitment.

Thank you to all who attended the town hall meetings last week. At the conclusion of each town hall meeting, Beth Akin, the Inspired to Grow Administrative Coordinator, distributed a prayer guide. The prayer guide included the verse, "The God of Heaven, He will prosper us; therefore, we, His servants, will arise and build," Nehemiah 2:20. This verse is a wonderful reminder of our God's faithfulness.

The Listening Cynic | March 26, 2017

WHY JESUS?

The mission of Jesus was necessary because all people are sinners. This declaration of moral failure may seem offensive, but everything that Jesus came to do was predicated upon it. And once people heard and understood, they made their decisions about staying with Jesus or going somewhere else.
