first baptist NEW ORLEANS

Celebrate the Resurrection

Welcome to First Baptist New Orleans! We are so honored that you have chosen to spend your Easter Sunday with us. This is without question the most important day of the year for millions of Christians around the world. We unite with our brothers and sisters in all four corners of the world today as we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus.

If this is your first time with us or your first time in a long time, I hope you enjoy worship today. If you have any questions about our church you can ask any of our greeters or ushers that are located throughout the building. We also have a special gift for all of our first time people available at our welcome desk. Just drop by the desk and tell them it is your first time at FBNO to receive your gift. We have small group Bible studies available for people of all ages after worship, and we would love to get you connected to a small group.

After our service today we will have four tables set up in our lobby with information on children's ministry, youth ministry, missions, and small group Bible studies. I would encourage you to stop by those tables and talk with our ministers if you have any questions or want more information.

I would love to meet you after our service today. Please come down and say hello and introduce yourself after the service. Happy Easter!

Taylor Rutland, Associate Teaching Pastor

A Journey With Jesus: Luke 24:13-35 | April 21, 2019

A seven mile journey. Two people processing an event that would forever change the world. As they walk and talk they are interrupted by a curious traveler. The traveler seems unaware of the events that just transpired in Jerusalem. As they converse with the unknown traveler the gospel story is shared. Little do they realize, however, that they are actually speaking to the one responsible for the gospel.
